The Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Australia, with whom the PRC have a corresponding church relationship, has informed the Contact Committee that one of their ministers, Rev. Chris Connors, has asked for and been granted release from his duties in the Brisbane congregation. Rev. Connors made this request after a number of years of struggle, due to prolonged ill health, and a steady decline in physical and emotional strength. Rev. Connors has served as a minister of the gospel in the EPC since his graduation from the Protestant Reformed seminary in 1994. The Presbytery accepted his resignation from the Brisbane charge and declared Rev. Connors to be emeritus. He will be supported financially by the Presbytery for a period of twelve months in the hope that God will grant recovery and enable him to take up the work of the ministry once again. Let us remember Rev. Connors and the EPCA in our prayers in this time of great need.
