

Pittsburgh Fellowship Activities for September:

- ❖ We welcomed a new baby in our group. Pete and Megan Cnossen were blessed with a baby boy on September 2. David Alan was welcomed home by his parents and 2 sisters, Nelle and Clara, and his brother, Tyler.
- ❖ We celebrated the Lord's Supper on September 13. Rev. DenHartog and Elder Ed Reitsma and Deacons Mike Hanko and Jeff DeVries came as a delegation from Southwest PRC. The elders were here to oversee the administering of the Lords Supper and conduct Family Visitation. The Elders and Deacons met with our Steering Committee. This Delegation comes to Pittsburgh twice a year.
- ❖ We welcomed many guests from our other Protestant Reformed Churches this month. They included:
 - ❖ Brad and Trisha Bruinsma and family visiting from Grandville PRC and staying for Labor Day weekend.
 - ❖ Becca Joostens, Sarah Joostens, and Laura DeVries from Grandville, PRC who stayed the weekend on their way to Washington DC.
 - ❖ Max and Virginia Moore from our Loveland, CO congregation on their way to Virginia to see their daughter.
 - ❖ The first weekend in October we welcomed Dan and Anna Mae Bodbyl from Grandville, PRC and Al and Sam VanDyke from Trinity PRC who stayed the weekend before heading to Washington D.C.
 - ❖ Mike and Helen Cnossen from Hudsonville, PRC were here October 4 to witness the baptism of their grandson, David Alan.
 - ❖ Steve Kuiper was the delegate from Southwest PRC who came to oversee the sacrament of baptism.
- ❖ We rejoiced with Pete and Megan Cnossen and witnessed the baptism of their new baby boy on October 4.

Church Activities for the Month of October:

- ❖ Cranberry Bible Studies: These classes in Cranberry, PA will begin October 14 and meet every other Wednesday. We are studying New Testament History.
